

Law Enforcement Support Systems, LLC

Training Customization

Assessment

Meet with customer to learn about their business and goals through individual meetings, SWOT analysis, and situation evaluation using various assessment tools.

Approval

Review assessment findings along with proposed training needs, tentative schedule, and fee with customer for approval.

Approach

Design customized training program within approved parameters to achieve desired goals and objectives.

Action

Execute the training program with real-time feedback, evaluation, and revisions to ensure all goals and objectives are met.

Accountability

Monitor both short and long term training results per established metrics and provide post training support services on and off site as needed to gain desired ROI, return on individual.